BOMBAY  SAPPHIRE,

BOMBAY SAPPHIRE DISTILLERY AT LAVERSTOKE MILL

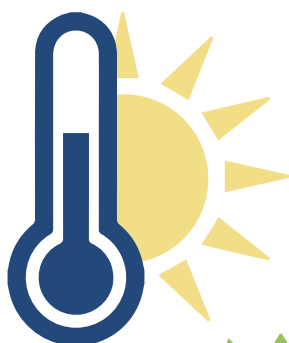

18th century site once used as a paper mill for the bank notes of the British Empire. Property was restored, maintaining much of the original Georgian and Victorian architecture including original bricks, windows, and fixtures.

SSSI STATUS
SITE OF SPECIAL
SCIENTIFIC INTEREST

UK conservation designation as protected natural habitat. Laverstoke Mill is home to abundant wildlife.

ZERO BOTANICAL WASTE
EVEN WOOD CHIPS
are used to superheat the water

HEAT RECOVERY FROM
